Homecoming Court Crowned

The M. C. Williams homecoming was an exciting time. All week long students participated in spirit activities to boost our football team on to victory. Included in this week was the election and coronation of Mr. and Miss M. C. Williams, 7th grade Prince and Princess and 6th grade Prince and Princess. By popular vote, the students elected Tametria Jefferson (8th grade) as Miss M. C. and Jerrick Jones (8th grade) as Mr. M. C. Leading up to this grand event the students and teachers participated in Crazy Sock Day, Inside Out Day, Bad Hair Day, Crazy Hat Day and Twin Day. The students purchased mums, and ribbons in celebration of their homecoming. The 2006-2007 Homecoming Court is as follows:

Miss M.C. - Tametria Jefferson; Mr. M.C. - Jerrick Jones ; 7th Grade Prince - Jordan Mays; 7th Grade Princess - Chelsy Harrison; 6th Grade Prince - Stephon Warner; 6th Grade Princess - Ashlin Campbell.

Upromise

Beginning November, 2006, M. C. Williams will be participating in the Upromise Schools Program - an exciting new fundraising program that can raise significant funds for our school, while helping you save for your child's college education. Through Upromise, you can earn cash rewards on your eligible everyday spending on groceries, gas, online shopping, and more - and allocate some or all of the rewards you earn to your school. You can also earn bonus funds for our school when you join Upromise and participate in select Upromise programs such as dining out and shopping online. To sign up, simply go to upromise.com/schools, click on Join Now, select your favorite school from the list provided and proceed with the registration process. Existing Upromise members can link their Upromise account to your school account through the "My Account" section of the Upromise Web site. For more information contact C. Dawson at 713-696-2600.
